

<https://career.na-kd.com/jobs/37731-quality-controller-intern>

Quality Controller - Intern

NA-KD is currently one of Sweden's fastest growing start-ups and one of the most interesting places to start your professional career. As a quality controller you will work with a wide range of tasks in our buying and purchasing department. We are a fast fashion company, so if you like to work in this kind of environment and be where it happens, this is the place!

This is a non-paid internship position.

Responsibilities

Assist on various on-going quality and long term projects
Support continuous alignment and quality improvements
Work with Quality Assurance Coordinator/Buyers/Factories on appropriate labels according to products
Administration of trim development and maintain trim archive
Partner with Quality Assurance Coordinator to request trim samples, when needed to get approval on color, material and quality
Structure, develop and formalize internal process and standards on quality and product compliance.
The Ideal Candidate

Fluent in English, both in speaking and writing
Driven and energetic, with the ability to focus on what really matters
Good knowledge and experience in Excel and MS Office
Ability to multitask in high paced environments, where rapid changes are common
You are social and a team player
You are a detailed oriented and organized person
Good knowledge of textile
Other info

this is a non-paid internship position.

About the Company and Founders

NA-KD has revolutionised the online fashion industry and is rapidly expanding! The company is led by Swedish e-commerce entrepreneur Jarno Vanhatapio, who founded Nelly.com and ZooZoo.com. NA-KD was launched in late 2015 and operates in the global fast fashion industry. NA-KD has more than 100 full-time employees and a yearly turnover of 25 MUSD. During the first year the website had 15 million visitors and gathered over 750 000 followers on social media platforms from more than 150 different countries. The company has a truly global DNA and has shipped to more than 140 countries. The majority of the sales originates from the private labels NA-KD Trend and NA-KD Boho, designed by our in-house production department. Behind the company stands a number of business angels and IT entrepreneurs. In December 2016 the venture capital firms Northzone and eEquity, became partners by investing 15 MUSD in the company.

Application deadline: Running applications

Position: Quality Controller - Intern

Location: Gothenburg, Sweden

Contact : tamara.ublova@na-kd.com